

The Resilia Platform

Resilia

A connected, two-sided platform empowers grantmakers and nonprofits to maximize and track their collective impact.

Empowering Grantmakers

Support Capacity Building:

Resilia helps grantmakers support the capacity-building efforts of their grantees. Nonprofits gain access to resources, tools, and on-demand learning that enhance their capabilities, enabling them to scale their operations and achieve sustainable growth.

Demonstrate Impact:

Resilia provides grantmakers with comprehensive insights into the progress and outcomes of funded programs. Through detailed reports, grantmakers can monitor key performance indicators (KPIs) and showcase the measurable impact of their investments, ensuring transparency and accountability.

Optimize Fund Utilization:

Grantmakers can better understand the effectiveness of their funding through Resilia's analytics and reporting tools. This ensures that grants are being used effectively, maximizing the impact of every dollar invested.

How We Enable Sustainable Nonprofit Growth

On-Demand Courses and Learning Tracks

Over 65 curated, bite-sized, actionable video courses spanning 5-20 mins and covering fundraising, board management, storytelling and more to help nonprofits in your community build skills to become changemakers.

Access 200+ Templates and Articles

Expedite daily mission-facing & back office needs through downloadable templates and best practice articles. Grantmakers can be confident that their grantees will operate more efficiently and effectively.

Impact Tracking

Integrated goal management that empowers organizations and individuals to set, track, and achieve their goals efficiently through comprehensive tools, real-time insights, and seamless collaboration. This empowers grantmakers to more effectively communicate the impact of their funding.

Storytelling Tools

Nonprofits use AI assistance to create annual reports and other impact stories with ease and to share their wins and challenges on social media and with funders. Grantmakers can use the nonprofit impact stories to communicate the impact their grantmaking is having on their community.

Online Donations

A low-fee, easy-to-set-up fundraising platform allows nonprofits to manage campaigns, accept donations, and receive automated payouts. This is one more way that Resilia helps nonprofits diversify their funding sources beyond your grants.

Community

Nonprofits have access to a network of over 3,000 members creating a collaborative environment for peer learning, networking, and expert advice. This supportive community ensures that nonprofits have additional places to get their questions answered, reducing their reliance on funders for guidance.

Live Learning

Regular live learning sessions on key topics keep nonprofits up-to-date and engaged with the latest trends and practices. Grantmakers can be assured that their grantees are receiving ongoing education and the support they need to address community needs.

Team-wide access

Unlimited access for unlimited team members, including their Board.

Stay Connected Through Collaboration and Reporting

Collaborative Goal Tracking

Grantmakers can set collaborative goals with nonprofits and receive updates on progress towards these goals, fostering a deeper understanding of program outcomes and capacity-building achievements.

Portfolio Usage Trends

Cohort-level data helps grantmakers understand the areas where nonprofits are growing and the resources they can't live without.

Benchmarking Reports

Grantmakers can compare their portfolio with nonprofits across the country, gaining insights into where their nonprofits need additional support compared to other nonprofits.

Regional Reporting

For grantmakers sponsoring cohorts across different regions, Resilia provides detailed insights into regional trends about how their nonprofits are engaging.

Stories Shared by Nonprofits

Grantmakers can access inspiring impact stories their nonprofit partners share through the platform, offering insights into the difference their nonprofit partners are making within their communities.

Hear From Our Partners

"The Boston Foundation has really benefited from Resilia. For instance, we're able to get aggregate information and learn—without taxing nonprofits' time and energy—what organizations are dealing with and where they need support. That helps inform our grantmaking and beyond-the-grant support decision making."

- Leigh Handschuh, The Boston Foundation

"Strengthening these vital nonprofit organizations is key to empowering residents, providing essential assistance, and revitalizing neighborhoods. Our partnership with Resilia equips nonprofits with tools and training to amplify their impact and create lasting improvements aligned with our 'Forever First' philosophy of corporate stewardship."

- Bobby Saldago, First Citizens Bank
